Students at A. & M. College
Cropped Hair of Freshmen and Blacked Their Faces.

GOVERNOR GLENN AT HOME

He Will Make Three Speeches
To-Day at Winston-Salem.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., February 15.—The hazing incident at the A. & M. College, which has attracted such widespread attention the past few days, is to be investigated by the State Board of Internal Improvements. Governor Glenn made a statement to this effect today, and added that he will give to the public the report of the board just as soon as it comes into his hands. The investigation is already under way, being made by B. C. Beckwith, chairman of the board. The special purpose of the investigation, according to the Governor's statement, is to see to it that as far as possible, all the students who were parties to the hazing are expelled. There have already been two expulsions.

The hazing of the freshmen was especially severe, ten of them having had their hair cropped and their faces blacked with nitrate of silver.

Governor Glenn's Busy Day.

Governor Glenn will spend Sunday in his home town, Winston-Salem, delivering four addresses, and speaking at 11 o'clock to the young people of the First Baptist Church; at 3 P. M. before the Knights of Pythias; at 4 o'clock before a mass meeting of the colored people, and at night he will address the congregation of the Central Methodist Church. A charter is issued for the Bull City Drug Company, Durham, capital $10,000, by W. G. Pearson, C. H. Shepherd and others, for a general drug business.

Adjutant-General T. R. Robertson, of the North Carolina National Guard, says that while nothing definite can yet be stated officially, it looks now like six companies will participate in the coast defense manoeuvres at Fort Caswell June 15th or thereabouts, these being Company B, First Regiment, Salisbury; Company C, Wilmington; Company D, and Company E, Goldsboro; Company G, of Washington, Second Regiment, and Company B, Third Regiment, Raleigh.

PRISONERS BREAK JAIL.

Three Negroes, Confined at Washington

Make Their Escape.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WASHINGTON, N. C., February 15.—Last evening three negro prisoners succeeded in making their escape from the city jail. The three were confined for petty offenses, and instead of being placed in separate cells were locked in the corridor. In some manner they obtained a two-pronged instrument, shaped something like a hoe, and with it succeeded in boring a large hole in the rear of the jail sufficiently large for the passage of a medium-sized man. The hoe was without a handle, and it must have required steady and constant work to bore this hole. Not being confined in the cells, these prisoners had easy access to their work, and after the last inspection by the jail officials was not interrupted. When the jailer entered this morning he found the hole in the wall and the prisoners escaped. He immediately gave the alarm, and a search was started, but as yet the prisoners are at large. The three prisoners were young men by name Tom Ward, Alex. Chapman and Will Brown. They were confined for larceny and were awaiting trial at this term of the Superior Court, now in session. It is thought that the hole was smuggled in the jail by one of the prisoners working on the streets. The sheriff of this county has offered a reward of $20 each for their capture.

same time, each auctioneer selling at the rate of about 200 piles to the hour. The quality continues to be above average, and generally very desirable for all purposes.

All the buyers are in the market, and competition is strong, but mostly between the different big corporations. The "independents" taking only a small share, say not over 20 to 25 per cent. of the bidders.

Prices are firm and without any change, and it is generally thought that they will continue at their present level until the crop is all sold.

The market for redried tobacco continues active, and many tobaccos have changed hands recently, going directly to the manufacturers.

We look for large receipts for the coming week, as the weather is soft.

River Clear of Ice at Fredericksburg.

Smallpox Quarantine in Stafford.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., February 15.—The warm weather has cleared the river of ice, opening navigation again, and the steamer Middlesex, from Baltimore, is expected to arrive here to-night on schedule.

The health board of Stafford county has extended the smallpox quarantine from February 17th two weeks longer, to March 2d.

The Rev. H. H. Fones, pastor of Hanover Baptist Church, King George county, has been extended a call to Oakland Baptist Church, in the same county, and has accepted.

Mr. H. Lewis Wallace, of this city, has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late J. J. Sale, of King George county.

A tract of 147 acres of land in Spotylvania county, belonging to the G. P. Goodloe estate, has been sold to Lee J. Graves for $955.

BALDWIN HAS HIS MAN.

Will Soon Sail From France With

Moses Porter, Wanted for Murder.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, VA., February 15.—Detective W. C. Baldwin received a telegram to-day from his brother stating that he would sail from Cherbourg, France, with Moses Porter, on the St. Paul, and is expected to arrive in New York next Friday. Mr. Baldwin left here six months and one week ago for the Syrian murder. He has been stopped time and time again by law processes, and offered large bribes to allow Porter to escape.

POSTMASTER MOSBY.

His Reappointment Very Pleasing to the People of Bedford.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BEDFORD CITY, February 15.—Mr. William H. Mosby has received a letter from Washington announcing the certainty of his reappointment as postmaster of Bedford City. Congressman

Stump has arranged the details of Mr. Mosby's application, its successful passage through the House of Representatives, and there only remains its indorsement by the Senate, of which there seems to be no doubt.

This is the fourth term as postmaster that Mr. Mosby has held here, three of which have been consecutive.

Mr. Mosby's indorsement on the present application was very strong. His petition was signed by about 600 names. His opponent for the office was Mr. Floyd Gray, a very prominent Republican. Mr. Mosby, who is of a fine old Virginia family, and is brother to Colonel John S. Mosby. He has availed himself of every opportunity for the advancement of this office, which now is a distributing office. Through his efforts the mail delivery system was introduced, and the service is most admirably conducted.

All of the clerks connected with the office are most courteous and of high social standing; the carriers are men of exceptional intelligence. Indeed, the entire conduct of the office is excellent, and Mr. Mosby's reappointment gives satisfaction to a majority of the people.

EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE.

One to Be Held at Culpeper in March—Some of Its Features.

WARRENTON, VA., February 15.—An educational conference of the State Teachers' Association, of the Eight District, has been called to meet in Culpeper, Va., March 18th, 19th and 20th. A splendid program has been prepared by a committee, composed of Principal J. D. Harris, vice-president of the association for the Eight District; Examiner Charles G. Maples, Superintendent J. M. Beckham, of Culpeper county, and Professor T. W. Hendricks, principal Culpeper High School; State Superintendent J. D. Eggleston, Jr., will open the conference with an address to the teachers, and the public on Wednesday night at 8 P. M. in the opera-house.

Among the other distinguished educators who will take part in the program are Mrs. Bruce R. Payne and W. H. Heck, of the University of Virginia; Examiner E. H. Russell and Mr. Robert Fraser. A large attendance of teachers, superintendents and trustees is expected.

FARMERS' SCHOOL.

Fine Class at Appomattox—Talks by T. O. Sandy and Others.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BURKEVILLE, VA., February 15.—At the farmers' school of instruction, held at Appomattox to-day, Mr. T. O. Sandy entertained 100 or more farmers for nearly two hours by giving them a practical talk on the most profitable methods of farming. He advised the cultivators to lease less land and cultivate it thoroughly in order to increase the yield per acre, and at the same time improve the land.

Mr. Banon, from Washington, D. C., spoke on farm manure, and gave a most interesting and instructive talk. Mr. J. G. Gilliam, of the University of Virginia, followed with some suggestions on how to breed cows.

Goldberry Hall.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LANCASTER, VA., February 15.—News was received here yesterday of the death in Baltimore of Mr. Goldberry Hall, a prominent citizen of this section. Mr. Hall had, in a short time ago, lost his mind, and was supposed in consequence of business disaster, and was taken to Baltimore to be treated in the St. Paul. His remains will be brought home on the steamer to-day and interred in the family burying-ground.

Death of Mrs. Cain.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., February 15.—A telegram received here today announces the death of Mrs. M. A. Cain, mother of Mrs. H. A. Brown, of this city, which occurred yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John A. Oats, in Fayetteville, N. C. Mrs. Cain had reached the ripe age of eighty-four years. The funeral service and interment took place at Fayetteville at 3 o'clock this afternoon.
